Here are a few Jokes to laugh

1. In the middle of a sermon the new rabbi beckoned to the shammes. "That man in the third row is asleep. Wake him up." "Let me tell you how it works," replied the shammes.

"You put 'em to sleep. You wake 'em up."

2. "Harvey, will you still love me when my hair is grey?"
"I've loved you through blond, brunette, red and every other color. Why not grey?"

3. A man is walking through a forest pondering life. He walks...ponders...walks...and ponders. He feels so close to nature, and even close to God, so close he feels that if he spoke God would answer. So he says, "God, are you listening?" And God replies, "Yes my son, I am here." So the man stops and ponders some more. He looks towards the sky and says, "God, what is a million years to you?" God replies, "Well, my son, a second to me is like a million years to you." So the man continues to walk and ponder...walk and ponder. Then he looks to the sky and again says, "God, what is a million dollars to you?" God replies, "My son, a million dollars to you is less than a penny to me. It means almost nothing to me. It does not even have a value it is so little." So the man looks down, ponders a bit, then looks up to the sky and says, "God, can I have a million dollars?" And God replies, "In a second."

Bacon, bean & pasta soup

4 Servings

Ingredients

- 8 Rashers rindless streaky bacon, chopped
- 2 Leeks, halved and sliced
- 4 Carrots, halved lengthways and sliced
- 400 grams Tin mixed beans, drained and rinsed
- 1 liter Chicken stock, fresh, cube or concentrate
- 2 tablesp. Tomato purée
- 50grams Small pasta shapes
- 1 Handful of flat-leaf parsley, chopped
- Grated parmesan, to serve

Directions

1. Fry the bacon in a large non-stick pan (it will cook in its own fat) until golden, then add the leeks and carrots and cook for about 5 minutes until softened.
2. Tip in the beans, chicken stock, tomato purée and pasta and simmer until the pasta is cooked.
3. Stir through the parsley and serve in bowls topped with grated Parmesan.

Although this contains streaky bacon, the calories are still modest. The mixed beans and pasta boast a low GI rating making this a healthy choice.

Easy: Cook :30 mins

Horoscope Scorpio (24.10. - 22.11.)

The scorpion and its characteristics at a glance

The typical scorpion is analytical, enduring, resilient, committed, dedicated, ambitious, purposeful, hard-working, searching, fearless, mysterious, brooding, intelligent, instinctive, powerful, creative, passionate, courageous, mysterious, self-critical, profound, inscrutable, fearless, resilient, strong-willed, tough, purposeful and reliable.

Weaknesses: jealous, cunning, irascible, uncompromising, power-hungry, manipulative, suspicious, vindictive, pessimistic, vindictive, bossy, sarcastic, unscrupulous, inscrutable, unforgiving and dogged.

Love and partnership:

Venus and Jupiter give you beautiful love aspects: They score with enormous charisma, experience passion and feeling and can even meet the partner for life. And if you have already found him, maybe there is a wedding in the room? Only Mars is a bit different: Different ideas of relationship life can lead to strife.

Occupation and Finance:

Business starts from 11.11. a real super phase:

With Merkur, everything about finances can be well regulated. Negotiations, purchases and sales are under a good star. Even creative minds can rejoice. Since Venus is cheap, you feel kissed by the muse, so to speak. It is important, however, that you show a lot of commitment and avoid careless mistakes.

Health and fitness:

Your nerves are a little tense. Just little things can get you off the mark. Good that Venus helps you to relax. Wellness can work wonders so that you feel reborn. And with Jupiter's support, it's easy for you to live healthily. From 29.10. then the sun enters your sign. It brings new vitality and good mood.

1. Maintain a healthy weight. If you're obese or even somewhat overweight, you're in danger of having a fatty liver that can lead to non-alcoholic fatty liver disease (NAFLD), one of the fastest growing forms of liver disease. Weight loss can play an important part in helping to reduce liver fat.

2. Eat a balanced diet. Avoid high calorie-meals, saturated fat, refined carbohydrates (such as white bread, white rice and regular pasta) and sugars. Don't eat raw or undercooked shellfish. For a well-adjusted diet eat fiber, which you can obtain from fresh fruits, vegetables, whole grain breads, rice and cereals. Also eat meat (but limit the amount of red meat), dairy (low-fat milk and small amounts of cheese) and fats (the "good" fats that are monounsaturated and polyunsaturated such as vegetable oils, nuts, seeds, and fish). Hydration is essential, so drink a lot of water.

3. Exercise regularly. When you exercise consistently, it helps to burn triglycerides for fuel and can also reduce liver fat.

4. Avoid toxins. Toxins can injure liver cells. Limit direct contact with toxins from cleaning and aerosol products, insecticides, chemicals, and additives. When you do use aerosols, make sure the room is ventilated, and wear a mask. Don't smoke.

5. Use alcohol responsibly. Alcoholic beverages can create many health problems. They can damage or destroy liver cells and scar your liver. Talk to your doctor about what amount of alcohol is right for you. You may be advised to drink alcohol only in moderation or to quit completely.

6. Avoid the use of illicit drugs. In 2012, nearly 24 million Americans aged 12 or older were current illicit drug users, meaning they had used an illicit drug during the month prior to the survey interview. This estimate represents 9.2 percent of the population aged 12 or older. Illicit drugs include marijuana/hashish, cocaine (including crack), heroin, hallucinogens, inhalants, or prescription-type psychotherapeutics (pain relievers, tranquilizers, stimulants, and sedatives) used non-medically.

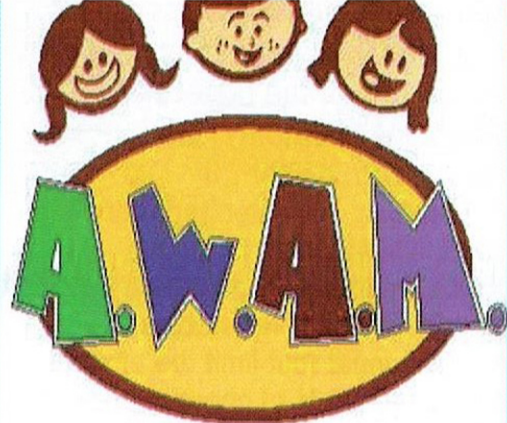

7. Avoid contaminated needles. Of course, dirty needles aren't only associated with intravenous drug use. You ought to follow up with a medical practitioner and seek testing following any type of skin penetration involving sharp instruments or needles. Unsafe injection practices, though rare, may occur in a hospital setting, and would need immediate follow-up. Also, use only clean needles for tattoos and body piercings.

8. Get medical care if you're exposed to blood. If for any reason you come into contact with someone else's blood, immediately follow up with your doctor. If you're very concerned, go to your nearest hospital's emergency room.

9. Don't share personal hygiene items. For example, razors, toothbrushes and nail clippers can carry microscopic levels of blood or other body fluids that may be contaminated.

10. Practice safe sex. Unprotected sex or sex with multiple partners increases your risk of hepatitis B and hepatitis C. Wash your hands. Use soap and warm water immediately after using the bathroom, when you have changed a diaper, and before preparing or eating food.

CROSSWORD

Life isn't about waiting for the storm to pass.
It's about dancing in the rain.
Remember your yesterdays,
dream your tomorrows and live your todays.

Some of the greatest things in life are unseen,
that's why you close your eyes when you kiss, cry or dream.
The biggest challenge in life is being yourself,
in a world trying to make you like everyone else.

Always be yourself. Unless you can be a unicorn. Then always be a unicorn.
The tragedy of life is not that it ends so soon,
but that we wait so long to begin it.
In the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years.

Love sayings for every Day

The others are the far blue sea
yet you are my haven.

There is no other man in the world
I would ever give my love to, now that I have found you.

So many places in the world and still your arms are my favourite spot.

Wherever you go, keep me close to your heart - as I will keep you close to mine.

Distance could never keep two lovers apart: be it a hundred or a thousand miles,
my heart will always find you

The message I am sending you today
is one of love:
the most sincere kind
of love, which
I could only ever have for you.

The most intimate and dearest part of my heart will ever only be reserved for you.

From China to Europe
the distance is about 8000 kilometres yet within my heart there is no distance
at all when I think of you.

What is done out of love always happens
beyond good and evil.
